Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 07 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Low cloud, drizzle in north. Brighter with showers in southeast.

Today:
Low cloud across the north and northeast in the morning with rain or drizzle, dry elsewhere with sunny spells in the south and west. Some brighter spells during the afternoon. rain easing in the north but heavy showers in southeast.

Tonight:
Showers in the southeast die out this evening. Otherwise largely dry overnight with some clear spells, but low cloud and drizzle across the Hebrides and northwest later.

Thursday:
Low cloud with patchy drizzle again in the north. Drier in the south with some brighter spells. Heavy showers again breaking out the in afternoon across the east.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Showers breaking out by day, these heavier and more widespread over the weekend. Haar will affect the east coast at times.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.